Working with the Contact Module (contact.xml)

The contact module is a flexible module that will allow you to build your own custom form

GLOBAL SETTINGS

`<useStyleSheet>`

choose to use a stylesheet for html text formatting

`<styleSheetUrl>`

the url of your css style sheet

`<submitFromEmailField>`

choose to send yourself the email from the email address entered in the form

`<restrictPhoneNumbers>`

choose to restrict a phone number field to only allow numbers

`<submitButtonText>`

the text for the submit button clearButtonText = the text for the clear button

`<successMessage>`

the success message once a form has been submitted

FIELD XML SETTINGS

```
<input isEmail="false">
      <fieldName>Name...</fieldName>
      <fieldType>small</fieldType>
      <required>true</required>
      <validationType>basic</validationType>
      <errorMessage>Please enter your Name</errorMessage>
</input>
```

`"isEmail"`

whether the field is an email field or not, true or false

`<fieldName>`

The text that will initially appear in the field

`<fieldType>`

      1) small
      2) large (typically used for a message)

`<required>`

true or false

`<validation>`

(only relevent if "required" is set to "true")

      1) basic (a basic input field)
      2) email
      3) phone

`<errorMessage>`

the message that will appear when the field fails validation